JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the Judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, 4, 5, and 6 of the 7-Count First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 360 months. This term consists of 60 months on Count 1, to be served concurrently to Counts 2, 4 and 6, and 240 months on each of Counts 2, 4, and 6 of the First Superseding Indictment, to be served concurrently with each other and Count 1 but consecutively to the 120 month term imposed on Count 5.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $500, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years. This term consists of three years on Count 1 and five years on each of Counts 2, 4, 5, and 6 of the First Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

USA vs. RAY A. MAXWELLDocket No.: CR 04-732(D)-RSWL

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;

3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, saliva and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's substance abuse problems and mental health issues to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;

7. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name;
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
9. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer; and,

USA vs. RAY A. MAXWELLDocket No.: CR 04-732(D)-RSWL

10. The defendant shall participate in a mental health counseling program as directed by the Probation Officer, until discharged by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall pay the cost of all treatment to the treatment provider and submit proof to the Probation Officer.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The Court recommends placement at a prison hospital, if there is no prison facility that can adequately care for his medical condition. The defendant is informed of his limited right to appeal within 10 days of today's date. The government's motion to dismiss Counts 3 and 7 of the First Superseding Indictment and any underlying Counts/Indictments is granted by the Court.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
